Dear Sister White:

Thank you so much for inviting me to dinner one evening during our recent meeting at Eastside. I thoroughly enjoyed my visit to Phoenix and certainly enjoyed the opportunity to become better acquainted with you and your family. It was a real pleasure to become better acquainted with Gerry and to learn more about your family's spiritual interests.

I know that the people at Eastside treasure greatly the help which you offer the work there. It was a real pleasure to be in your city and, above all, to enjoy the opportunity of personal association with you.

Thank you very much for a lovely meal and a very pleasant association.

Faternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
